Earthquakes at Martinique. New York, Feb. 23.—A dispatch to the Herald from Port de France, Martinique, dated Wednesday says that another earthquake occurred here today at 12:13 p. m. Fortunately no great damage was done. Several slight earthquakes followed those of February 16 and 17, but without causing any new damage. People here were very much alarmed and fled to the hills, but have now returned their ordinary occupations, following the calm of Feb. 19 and 20.

Breeders' Association Re-Organized. Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 23.—At a meeting here a reorganization of the Tennessee Breeders' association was perfected by the election of Irby Bennett president and John W. Russwurm secretary. In view of this action it is practically settled that there will be racing at Cumberland Park next spring on the dates submitted to the Tennessee Fair association, which now controls the track, asking the use of the park for racing purposes on certain occasions.

Kidnaping Theory Believed. East Liverpool, O., Feb. 23.—The whole town is agitated over the mysterious disappearance of Cecil Hicks, the 11-year-old son of Mrs. C. L. Hicks. Saturday he started in daylight from his mother's to his grandmother's home, not three blocks away, but he never arrived. A reward has been offered, and police, parents and friends have scoured the city for three days without finding a trace of him. The theory is that he was kidnaped by tramps.

Funeral Rites Interrupted. Washington, Ind., Feb. 23.—Mry E. Lents, a widow, has been adjudged insane. She will be taken to the Southern Indiana hospital. She entered St. Mary's church during a funeral service and interrupted the priest in the rites by walking up to him and making remarks on religion.

Plan Gigantic Structure. New York, Feb. 23.—The Singer Manufacturing company has filed plans with Building Superintendent Murphy for a structure, which will be higher than all existing skyscrapers by from 250 to 300 feet, and will be about 10 feet higher than the Washington monument.

Frightfully Burned. Chas. W. Moore, a machinist of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "A quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for burns, wounds, sores, eczema and piles. 25c at all drug stores.

College Destroyed by Fire. Kankakee, Ill., Feb. 23.—St. Viators college, at Bourbonnais, Ill., two miles north of Kankakee, has been totally destroyed by fire. Loss $100,000. The college is a Roman Catholic institution and was founded in 1865. It has 200 students. The cause of the fire was crossed electric wires. No person was injured.

The Yellow Fever Germ Has recently been discovered. It bears a close resemblance to the malaria germ. To free the system from disease germs, the most effective remedy is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed to cure all diseases due to malaria poison and constipation. 25c at all drug stores.

HEAVY FINE FOR MRS. PRICE.

She Broke Into Residence and Was Taken for Burglar.

Atlanta, Feb. 23.—Rose Price, the white woman who broke into the residence of W. E. Matthews was arraigned in the recorder's court and fined $25.75.

The woman stated that she went into the wrong house by mistake, but Mr. Matthews, his wife and mother testified that she broke open a window which was closed with shutters and glass lights. The shutters were torn from the hinges and the glass was smashed.

Matthews testified that he thought a burglar was in the house and when he went into the dark parlor he had a hatchet in his hand. He was in the act of striking when the woman spoke.

"The moment I heard a woman's voice," he stated, "I paused long enough not to use the hatchet, but I came very near killing her."

Mrs. Price said she came to Atlanta from Macon and had been here only a few weeks.

She was not able to pay the fine of $25 and was sent to the stockade for 30 days.

Killed by a Train. Asheville, N. C., Feb. 23.—J. I. Costner, 65 years of age, a hotel proprietor of Spray, N. C., was run down by Southern passenger train No. 8 near Stokesland, and was instantly killed. Costner was walking along the tracks, when seeing a freight train approaching he stepped from the track on which he was walking to the other track. The noise of the approaching freight train prevented him from hearing a swiftly running passenger train approaching him from the rear. The engine struck him with terrific force, the body being horribly mangled and thrown a considerable distance.

FRIENDS TELL FRIENDS— "NOTHING LIKE PE-RU-NA."

Tells Every One About Pe-ru-na. Mrs. R. T. Fennessy, Bound Brook, N. J., writes:

"I have taken Peruna and find it a very good medicine. After I took one bottle of Peruna, I was cured of my cold. I cannot help telling every one I know about Peruna and asking them to try it. I would like every one to know of the good Peruna does."

Recommended Pe-ru-na to Many. Mrs. J. M. Horton, 926 S. 15th street, Birmingham, Ala., writes:

"I had a severe attack of la grippe. After taking the third bottle of Peruna I was fully restored to health. I have recommended it to many."

A Neighbor Advised Pe-ru-na. Mrs. John Haynes, 107 E. Main St., Columbus, Ohio, writes:

"For over two years I suffered with headaches and severe pains in my head, and all these two years my friends would say, 'Why don't you take Peruna?' 'Finally one of my neighbors just insisted on my taking it. I tried it and before I had taken one-fourth of a bottle my headaches were gone. I am never without Peruna. I advise every one to take Peruna.'

Friend Advised Use of Pe-ru-na. Mr. E. W. Staley, 312 Fillmore St., Nashville, Tenn., writes:

"I was down for three months with pneumonia and had gotten very weak. A friend advised me to try Peruna, which I did, and soon found it was the thing I needed. When I finished the third bottle, I found I weighed more than I ever did in my life."

Spreading the Good News. Prof. J. Ivison, dealer in musical merchandise, box 313, Cumberland, Md., writes:

"It is now five months since my wife began taking Peruna and from the day improvement has been going noticeably. She is now in good health. We never tire of making this fact known to our many friends."

A Friend Had Used Pe-ru-na. Mr. Henry L. Goodwin, portrait artist, 28 Gove street, E. Boston, Mass., writes:

"For three years I have been suffering from a general rundown condition of the system. I tried many remedies. 'A friend of mine advised me to use Peruna, as it had benefited him. 'After taking two bottles I felt better. Now I am in the best of health.'"
